IN OTHER QUILCHENA NEWS...

CAN YOU SPOT Q-MAN.. AND THE WINNER IS!

Back in late January, we launched our Spot the Q Man Contest, and the excitement has been building ever since!

Each week, students and families kept a close eye on The Week Ahead, searching carefully for the hidden Q Man. Thank you to everyone who participated and joined in the fun.

This week, we officially drew our winner... and congratulations to Woody! Woody's sharp eyes and dedication paid off, earning him the special opportunity to become Principal for the Morning! While the role usually belongs to the adults in the office, Woody got a behind-the-scenes look at what it takes to run the school.

During his morning as Principal, Woody:

- Helped with parking lot supervision
- Gave the morning announcements
- Welcomed guest TTOC's to the school
- Did morning visits to the classrooms
- Answered some phone calls from parents
- Submitted some Service Requests to Maintenance & Tech Services
- Helped with Recess Supervision
- Met with our District Maintenance team member
- Assisted at our Green Team's Book Exchange
- Helped load school materials in the District Resource Centre van
- Signed off on some supply orders and reimbursements
- Had a TEAMS meeting with our Assistant Superintendant, Mrs. Thompson

The list goes on...it was a very busy morning!

Being Principal for the Morning is a great chance for students to see leadership in action and learn more about how our school works. Mrs Kusch and Mrs Spence were excited to welcome Principal Wu to the principal's chair and he did an amazing job!

Thank you again to everyone who participated in the Spot the Q Man Contest—and be sure to keep watching and reading The Week Ahead. You never know what fun opportunity might appear next!
