May 20 – Pro-D (no school)

It's hard to believe we are already into the middle of May, which lately feels like winter. Hopefully our weather warms up and we can start to enjoy more outdoor learning activities. In discussion with the photographer, our class photos were cancelled this past Thursday and have been rescheduled for Tuesday, May 24th. Our wish is to have our class photos outside on our beautiful, new playground and fingers crossed we get a better day weather-wise.

In Other Quilchena News:

Daily Health Check: The mandatory daily health check remains in place for all members of our community and remains a key component of our health and safety protocols. Just a reminder that if your child is not feeling well before they come to school, please keep them at home to rest and not return until they are symptom free. Thank you for your efforts in keeping everyone healthy.

JeanUp! Campaign: Once again our Quilchena Community opened their hearts and wallets to support BC Children's Hospital's JeanUp! Campaign – you did us proud Quilchena! Thank you to everyone who wore denim on May 10th and donated to BC Children's Hospital. We surpassed our goal of $364.00 and raised $861.00! Your generosity and support for such an important cause is most appreciated.

Boyd Biennale Fine Arts Night: Hugh Boyd's "Biennale" Fine Arts night will be Wednesday, May 18th between 6:00 and 8:30pm. The Biennale is a casual open-house type event at which attendees are invited to stroll through the gallery in the lounge and to check out the various performances that will be scheduled in the gyms. We hope you can attend to celebrate the talents of Boyd's musicians, actors, and artists!

Shred it! Nothing feels better than to shred all those unnecessary documents for a good cause! Join The Steveston Rotary on May 14 to support the community of Steveston. Bring all your spring-cleaning paperwork down to McMath Secondary between 10am – 2pm. They'll securely shred your documents for a donation of $10 per box. See flyer.
